Privacy Statement

To comply with the requirements of the General Data Protection Rules the club has a data protection policy covering the holding of personal data of the club members.

The member data held by the club may be: means of communication (at least one is needed), financial data, images of your artworks and personal images taken at workshops and exhibitions. A telephone number may be useful for updates on meetings and weather.

Your personal data is used to enable the club to inform you of club activities, club news, local and national art events and to publicise the club activities. The club will not share your personal data with others without your consent, except as required by law or for a vital need.

In order to promote the interests of the club and its members, the club wants to display images of your artworks (attributed for copyright reasons) in the newsletter, on the club website and Facebook. We are asking for your consent. You may decline to consent and may withdraw consent at any time.

Images of groups of members at workshops or exhibitions are sometimes displayed in the newsletter and on the club website or Facebook. We are asking you for your consent. You may decline to consent and may withdraw consent at any time.

Data is held securely by the club for its chairman, membership secretary and treasurer. Financial data will be held for six years. Other personal data will be deleted after a member leaves the club.

A member may decline consent for personal data to be held or for it to be used. Consent may also be withdrawn by notifying the club but at least names and a means of communication is needed for membership to continue.
